2010 ROTARY CHARITY ART SHOW
 A RESOUNDING SUCCESS

The Rotary Queanbeyan West Club and Queanbeyan Art Society conducted a successful Open Charity Art Show that raised funds for the Queanbeyan Region.

The new venture for the two Queanbeyan based organisations was to take a Charity Art Show to Canberra's City Walk over a week of Floriade and it paid off for Queanbeyan Region Charities.

It was estimated an average of 1,500 people went through the Art Show every day allowing the artists a wonderful chance to sell their works and over 50 paintings were sold. Into its third year the Rotary Charity Art Show is going from strength to strength and has established itself in the region as a major art event. QAS has not only given the artists a high profile venue to display their works but the Society has benefited through a keen interest shown in QAS.

The Society sold more 2011 Calendars over this week than were sold in the entire year last year and there were many enquiries about the Society from people who wanted to get into painting or find out the location of the Gallery to have a look at the monthly Exhibitions.

The strength of the sponsorship this year was greater with many new sponsors coming on board and even the ACT Government tipped the till. At least two big companies want to talk about taking up a major sponsorship next year if the event is held again in City Walk Canberra.

Well done to the loyal band of supporters - a job well done!

QUEANBEYAN'S PROCLAMATION 1838 TO 2010

THE Queanbeyan City Council staged a dual-purpose day at Queanbeyan Art Society Gallery last Sunday. Queanbeyan's Mayor Tim Overall was like a 'one legged soccer player' presenting art awards and cutting the city Proclamation Cake. The Queanbeyan City Council Art Competition/Exhibition saw one of the best quality Exhibitions ever staged. The Mayor presented no fewer than a dozen art awards and also with fellow Councillors cut the City Proclamation Cake in front a large audience who enjoyed a BBQ, afternoon tea and refreshments.

SOME of the QAS members who sold works at the Rotary Charity Art Show in City Walk Canberra. The Art Show attracted 1,500 viewers a day over the Canberra Floriade week and over 50 art works sold. The venue, the weather and quality of art all contributed to the successful event!

QAS member Mark Redzic was the most successful artist at the Rotary Charity Art Show, selling five works. Two of his works (far right) are pictured with their new owners at City Walk Canberra. Mark had reason to smile when he also won the Molonglo Exhibition 'People's Choice' award by a big margin with 'The Shearer'.

QAS members gathered for morning tea, Mark Radzic, Sandra House, Karen Hall, Patricia Fleming and Marijke Gilchrist. Not many meal breaks in the busy office - just ask Belinda Ingram.

The two 'Rotary Heavies' Bill Doran and Shane Taylor could have been the guards but are having a break with Jean Helmes.

Queanbeyan City Mayor Tim Overall again opened the Rotary Art Show with RQWC president Gary Nain, Liz Wilson (National Portrait Gallery) and Marijke Gilchrist on hand.

ARTSTART GIVES ARTISTS A $10,000 CAREER KICK-START

BUILDING a career in the arts just got a little easier with the new round of applications for ArtStart grants open until 5 October 2010. As part of the Australia Council for the Arts' career building initiative, more than 100 grants of up to $10,000 each are available for artists who have graduated from an accredited artist training scheme within the last three years or are about to graduate. "The Artist Careers research released last week by the Australia Council shows that creating a career as an artist is a difficult thing to do," says Director of ArtStart, Kath Melbourne. "ArtStart is one way of addressing this. Rather than being a grant to directly invest in creating art, ArtStart is a grant for recently graduated artists to invest in themselves and in their career. Applicants can use the grants to, among other things, develop skills, rent studio space or tools, get expert business advice, expand their marketing and promotional skills or put together a portfolio. Interested artists are encouraged to visit www.artstartgrant.com.au and follow the team on Facebook, Twitter and Foursquare to learn more about ArtStart, get tips about how to prepare the best possible application and view updates on the progress of previous ArtStart recipients. To apply for an ArtStart grant, applicants need to submit a written application outlining a simple five-year plan of activities they believe are important to establishing their practice. The ArtStart website guides candidates through the application process from start to finish.

PRESIDENT'S PALETTE

THE 2010 Rotary Charity Art Show in City Walk Canberra over a week of Floriade proved a huge success for not only the charities of the Queanbeyan region but also QAS members. Something like 1,500 plus people viewed the Art Show every day through the week something, the Society would like to see in the future at our Gallery. There is no doubt our members have the work that will sell and they only need the opportunity to present it more frequently to a bigger audience. It was great to see members compete alongside other well know artists and to those who sold congratulations in carrying the QAS flag. We sold more 2011 QAS Calendars than all last year in that week and it proved a big advantage having the people stream through the Art Show. Thanks to all those wonderful sponsors and a big thank you to Belinda Ingram for organising all the 'helpers' for the Art Show and working beyond her duty.

A special thanks to the NGA and the NPG for their [redacted] year [redacted] membership vouchers which are proving very popular. Once again the Council Exhibition was a huge success. Our thanks to Council for their [redacted] annual sponsorship and also Bill Mitchell's $400 worth of framing vouchers.

*Yours in Art,
Barry Cranston
